

University of Texas-Arlington Hosts Texas Dairy Queen® Regional Marching Competition on October 10th

Prominent event is one of 19 regional championships held across the country this fall

Jacksonville, AL – Outstanding high school marching bands from throughout Texas will compete in one of the nation’s most prominent championships, Music for All’s Texas Dairy Queen® Bands of America Regional Championship at Arlington, presented by Yamaha, at the Maverick Stadium (1307 W Mitchell St.) in Arlington, TX on October 10th.

The championship event, hosted by the Arlington Maverick Marching Band, will feature 32 high school marching bands in the preliminary competition, all of which will be evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 10 bands will advance to the evening finals competition, which will ultimately name the Regional Champion. Music & Arts will be the Official Music Store of the event.

“Bands of America Championships are a program of Music for All, which has a mission to create, provide and expand positively life-changing experiences through music for all,” said Eric L. Martin, President and CEO of Music for All. “This being our 40th year of Bands of America Championships, we’re looking to provide more unique opportunities for thousands of students to showcase the dedication, teamwork and mastery required and fostered through music and arts education.”

Schedule

The preliminary competition begins at 10:45 a.m. and will conclude at approximately 4:00 p.m. Gates will open for the finals at 6:45 p.m. with performances beginning at 7:45 p.m. The Arlington Maverick Marching Band will perform in exhibition at the conclusion of preliminary competition.
