

The Georgia Dome Hosts Super Regional Marching Band Competition on October 29th

Prominent event is one of 20 regional championships held across the country this fall.

ATLANTA, GA – Outstanding high school marching bands from throughout Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia will compete in one of the nation’s most prominent championships, The United States Marine Corps Bands of America Super Regional Championship at Atlanta, presented by Yamaha. The event will be held at the Georgia Dome (1 Georgia Dome Dr. Atlanta, GA 30313) in Atlanta, Georgia, on October 29.

The championship event, hosted by the North Cobb High School Orchestra, will feature 35 high school marching bands in the preliminary competition, all of which will be evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 12 bands will advance to the evening finals competition, which will ultimately name the Super Regional Champion. Ken Stanton Music will be the Official Music Store of the event.

“Bands of America Championships are a program of Music for All, supporting our mission to create, provide and expand positively life-changing experiences through music for all,” according to Eric L. Martin, President and CEO of Music for All. “Active experiences in music and the arts are integral to providing students with a well-rounded education. The thousands of students who will perform at this championship showcase the results that come from the dedication, teamwork and mastery required and fostered through music and arts education.”

Schedule

The preliminary competition begins at 7:15 a.m. on Saturday, October 29 and will conclude at approximately 5:00 p.m. Gates will open for the finals at 6:45 p.m. with performances beginning at 7:45 p.m. Georgia State University Panther Band will perform at the conclusion of the preliminary competition, and “The Commandant’s Own” The United States Marine Drum & Bugle Corps will perform at the conclusion of the finals competition. All times are tentative pending the final schedule of performing bands. Current times will be listed at musicforall.org.
