

Maddie Fitzgerald Joins Music for All as Participant Relations Coordinator

INDIANAPOLIS – Music for All has added Maddie Fitzgerald to its Indianapolis staff as Participant Relations Coordinator. Fitzgerald joins Music for All full-time having served previously as a Participant Relations intern for Music for All.

Music for All is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit educational organization that uniquely combines regional and national music education programming with awareness and advocacy efforts aimed at expanding access to music in schools and communities.

As Participant Relations Coordinator, Fitzgerald will provide support to Music for All's participant relations team. The Participant Relations team serves as a first point-of-contact for directors and students involved in Music for All's programs, attends local and national conventions on behalf of the organization, and maintains participant and event data.

"We're excited to add Maddie to our team because she brings a positive energy and commitment to building relationships," said Camilla M. Stasa, Director of Participant Relations and Special Projects. "Her internship at Music for All has certainly paved the way to make this hire a successful one for our department."

Fitzgerald received her bachelor's degree in Arts Administration with a concentration in music from Butler University. While at Butler, she was involved with the athletic band program, the wind ensemble, and Kappa Kappa Psi. She previously completed internships at the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, Indianapolis Chamber Orchestra, and Music for All.
