

Music for All Announces Promotion of Mark Sternberg to Events Manager

INDIANAPOLIS – Music for All, one of the nation’s largest and most influential organizations in support of active music-making has promoted Mark Sternberg to Events Manager as of December 2017.

Sternberg has been a part of the Music for All events team since 2013, first as an Events Coordinator, and most recently Senior Events Coordinator. Prior to joining the Music for All staff, he was a band director and music teacher in central Indiana for 10 years.

The Event Manager is a key management level position within Music for All’s Events Department. The Events Department at Music for All organizes and executes the events that provide access to scholastic music education and positively life-changing experiences for thousands of middle school and high school students across the nation. The Event Manager reports to the Director of Events, overseeing the operations of each event Music for All coordinates.

“We’re excited to promote Mark and to have him take on this important role at Music for All,” said Laura Blake, Music for All’s Director of Events. “Mark is a driving force in our department. He is a visionary and innovator who lives our mission. I look forward to working with him as he continues to make a positive impact on scholastic music-making”

Mark Sternberg is a graduate of the Music Education program at Butler University, and also earned his Masters in Music Education from Butler.
