

John Clark Stadium Hosts Bands of America Championship on October 8th

Prominent event is one of 20 regional championships held across the country this fall.

Plano, TX – Outstanding high school marching bands from throughout Texas and Arkansas will compete in one of the nation’s most prominent championships, Music for All’s Bands of America Regional Championship at Plano, presented by Yamaha, at the John Clark Stadium (6600 Stadium Drive) in Plano, TX on October 8th.

The championship event, hosted by the Plano East High School Band and Boosters, will feature 32 high school marching bands in the preliminary competition, all of which will be evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 10 bands will advance to the evening finals competition, which will ultimately name the Regional Champion.

“Bands of America Championships are a program of Music for All, supporting our mission to create, provide and expand positively life-changing experiences through music for all,” according to Eric L. Martin, President and CEO of Music for All. “Active experiences in music and the arts are integral to providing students with a well-rounded education. The thousands of students who will perform at this championship showcase the results that come from the dedication, teamwork and mastery required and fostered through music and arts education.”

Schedule

The preliminary competition begins at 7:15 a.m. and will conclude at approximately 5:00 p.m. Gates will open for the finals at 6:45 p.m. with performances beginning at 7:45 p.m. The Arlington Maverick Marching Band will perform in exhibition at the conclusion of preliminary competition, and “The Commandant’s Own” The United States Marine Drum & Bugle Corps will perform at the conclusion of the final competition. All times are tentative pending the final schedule of performing bands. Current times will be listed at musicforall.org.
