University of Toledo Band to Host Regional Bands of America Marching Band Championship in Toledo, Ohio
*Competition Featuring 18 High School Marching Bands to Take Place at Glass
Bowl Stadium on Sept. 24, 2022*

TOLEDO, OHIO (Sept. 12, 2022) – High school performers will bring live music back to Glass Bowl Stadium in Toledo on Saturday, Sept. 24 as marching bands from throughout Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, New York, Ohio, and West Virginia compete in the 2022 Bands of America Northwest Ohio Regional Championship, presented by Yamaha. Bands of America Championships are the premier marching band events in the nation and are entertaining, family-friendly events featuring live music, choreography, and competition.

Hosted by the University of Toledo Band, the Bands of America (BOA) Regional Championship will feature 18 high school marching bands in preliminary competition. A panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts will evaluate the band performances. The top 12 scoring bands will advance to the evening finals competition. The event will feature an exhibition performance by the University of Toledo Rocket Marching Band.

The Bands of America Northwest Ohio Regional Championship, presented by Yamaha, is one of 26 Bands of America marching band championships across the country this fall, providing positively life-changing experiences for students, teachers, and fans.

“Music for All is about building leaders and celebrating teachers. The Bands of America Championship in Toledo is a celebration of music education at its finest, showcasing the excellence, teamwork, and student leadership of the region’s outstanding marching bands,” says Jeremy L. Earnhart, President and CEO of Music for All, the non-profit educational organization that presents Bands of America programs. “These young performers and their achievements advocate for the importance of music education in schools locally and nationwide.”

Music and arts involvement teaches young people many skills necessary to succeed in life, including problem-solving and decision-making, self-confidence, self-discipline, personal responsibility, teamwork, and more. Research shows attendance and graduation rates are higher for students who participate in their school music programs. The College Entrance Examination Board found that students involved in public school music programs scored, on average, 107 points higher on the SATs than students with no participation.

The BOA season concludes with the Bands of America Grand National Championships, presented by Yamaha, Nov. 10-12 at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis.

Music for All will present the Bands of America Northwest Ohio Regional Championship at Glass Bowl Stadium (1745 Stadium Drive, Toledo, OH 43606) on Saturday, Sept. 24. Ticket prices are $25 for prelims, $25 for finals, or $40 for an all-Day Pass when ordered in advance.

About Music for All

Music for All's mission is to create, provide, and expand positively life-changing experiences through music for all. Our vision is to be a catalyst to ensure that every child in America has access and opportunity for active music-making in their scholastic environment. Founded in 1975, Music for All is a destination – and sets the standard – for school music ensemble performance and music education advocacy. Music for All provides ensemble experiences, hands-on opportunities for individual student performance training and growth, and teacher professional development. Music for All is also committed to informing and empowering students, parents, and teachers to be engaged advocates for the arts and music education in their communities and across the nation. A 501(c)(3) nonprofit educational organization, Music for All's programs include 30+ annual events, serving more than 500,000 attendees each year – more than 1.3 million in our 46-year history. Our programs include the Bands of America Grand National Championships and Regional Championships for marching bands, the Music for All Summer Symposium, the Music for All National Festival and Affiliate Regional Music Festivals for concert ensembles, and national honor ensembles for students, including the Bands of America Honor Band that marched for the fifth time in the Rose Parade® on New Year's Day 2022.
