

Music for All Launches New Podcast Network “Break Ranks” Returns September 13

INDIANAPOLIS – Music for All is launching a new podcast network to continue its goal to provide high quality education and music opportunities for everyone.

The network will showcase a wide variety of podcasts, new and old, to bring focused content about music education and marching band events to teachers, parents, students, administrators, and more.

Leading the way, Music for All is bringing back the popular “Break Ranks” podcast.

this fall, starting September 13.

“Break Ranks,” hosted and produced by Bands of America’s Dan Potter, will return to bring you the latest about the Bands of America Championship season. Dan will explore every angle of marching band, with something for students, parents, teachers, administrators, and fans.

Look for “Break Ranks” every Wednesday

Other podcasts soon to join the network are Teaching Social Emotional Learning Through Music with Scott Edgar and David Duarte’s Culture Before Content.

Listen to Break Ranks and all of the Music for All Podcast Network on Spotify, Apple Podcasts, or wherever you listen to podcasts.
