

Bands of America Championships Tour stops in Las Cruces Saturday

15 bands will compete in the regional championship on Sept. 23

Las Cruces, N.M. - High School marching band students from across the region will perform when the Bands of American National Championships Tour reaches Las Cruces on Saturday.

Bands will represent areas of New Mexico and Texas at the 2023 Bands of America New Mexico Regional Championship, presented by Yamaha, in the New Mexico State University's Aggie Memorial Stadium.

Bands will take the field beginning at 10:20 a.m. Doors will open to the public at 9:50 a.m. There will be a special exhibition performance by the Pride of New Mexico Marching Band at 1:55 p.m.

Fifteen bands will compete in the premier marching band event that will feature live music, choreography and competition. They will be evaluated by a panel of nationally-recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 12 scoring bands will advance to the evening finals where one band will be crowned champion at the end of the night.

The Bands of America Championships season will conclude with the Bands of America Grand National Championships Nov. 9-11 at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis, IN.
