Bands will take the field beginning at 11:15 a.m. on Friday. Gates will open to the public at 10:45 a.m.

On Saturday, bands will take the field at 7:15 a.m. Gates will be open to the public at 6:45 a.m. There will be a special exhibition performance by The Spirit of Houston Cougar Marching Band from the University of Houston at the conclusion of preliminary performances on Saturday.

Sixty-eight bands will compete in the premier marching band event that will feature live music, choreography and competition. They will be evaluated by a panel of nationally-recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 12 scoring bands will advance to the evening finals where one band will be crowned champion at the end of the night.

“Music for All is about building leaders and celebrating teachers. The Bands of America Super Regional Championship in San Antonio is a celebration of music education at its finest, showcasing the excellence, teamwork, and student leadership of the region’s outstanding marching bands,” said Jeremy L. Earnhart, President and CEO of Music for All, the non-profit educational organization that presents Bands of America programs.
