

2025 Bands of America Super Regional Championship Returns to St. Louis on Oct. 17-18.

Over 65 high school marching bands will compete for the Super Regional Championship title

ST. LOUIS, MO – High school marching band students from across the country will perform at the Bands of America St. Louis Super Regional Championship, presented by Yamaha, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 17-18 at The Dome at America's Center.

The competing bands will travel to St. Louis from 11 different states – Arkansas, Colorado, Illinois, Louisiana, Mississippi, Nebraska, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, and Missouri. Bands of America Championships are the nation's premier marching band events, showcasing outstanding student musicians and visual performances.

Bands take the field for preliminary competition performances on Friday as early as 10:15 a.m. Gates will open to the public at 9:45 a.m. Competition will conclude around 9:00 p.m., picking up again Saturday at 7:00 a.m. with gates opening at 6:30 a.m.

Times are subject to change, visit marching.musicforall.org for the latest event schedule.

There will be two exhibition performances at this event. The University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign Marching Illini will perform following the completion of preliminary competition on Saturday, around 3:30 p.m. Then, the Missouri State University Pride Marching Band will perform the national anthem before finals competition at 6:30 p.m. and in exhibition concluding finals competition around 10:30 p.m.

Performances will be evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The 14 highest-scoring bands will advance to the evening finals with the top-scoring band named champion at the end of the night. The first competing finalist band takes the field at 7:00 p.m. with gates opening at 6:00 p.m.

Bands of America welcomes back long-time event host, the Blue Springs High School Band. Event hosts, like the Blue Springs High School Band, help make this event a success.

The Dome at America's Center has hosted the Bands of America Super Regional Championship for almost thirty years, and plan on returning for the foreseeable future.

The 2025 Bands of America Championships season includes 29 events across America, culminating with the Bands of America Grand National Championships at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis, November 13-15.

Music for All is celebrating its 50th anniversary this season. Since 1975, Bands of America has supported music education and the marching arts. This year, the organization celebrates all the bands who have stepped foot on a marching field and helped create the path for all who will come next. For more information, visit musicforall.org/50
